

CBS Colorado Television E-Mails

NOTE: I contacted CBS Television Colorado's political reporter Shaun Boyd through their web site.

From: Boyd, Shaun <SBoyd@cbs.com>
Sent: Saturday, December 14, 2024 10:45 AM
To: <Recipient Address Redacted>
Subject: Judiciary story

Scott,

I appreciate you reaching out. I am definitely interested but I'm off until after January 1st. Can we talk when I get back? Meantime, would you please send me more information?

Thank you,
Shaun

From: CBS4 Denver Website <website@cbsdenver.com>
Sent: Saturday, December 14, 2024 10:26 AM
To: Boyd, Shaun <SBoyd@cbs.com>
Subject: FW: Send an email below - Shaun Boyd - [#25527]

From: Wufoo <no-reply@wufoo.com>
Sent: Saturday, December 14, 2024 10:18 AM
To: CBS4 Denver Website <website@cbsdenver.com>
Subject: Send an email below - Shaun Boyd - [#25527]

From: <Sender Address Redacted>
Sent: Saturday, December 14, 2024 4:36 PM
To: Boyd, Shaun <SBoyd@cbs.com>
Subject: Re: Judiciary story

Ms. Boyd,

Thank you for your prompt response. I will be out of the country from mid-January until late March. If, after reviewing information you believe there is a larger, news-worthy story to be told, I'd enjoy working with you. That said, I do not want this story to be about me but rather a focus on government and why the system seems to be failing.

I have attached a link to the web site (below) I created in attempt to expose wrong-doing, lack of accountability and incompetence. You should look past the local issue here in Archuleta County and the egregious actions of people that put me in a courtroom to see the undercurrent of governmental mismanagement. As you will read, I don't take affronts of this sort lightly and vigorously pursue wrongdoing. As the first page suggests, if you want a look at higher-up government shenanigans, then jump to the section 'Updates & Latest News,' but it is all worth a read.

My disappointment with 'the system' is clear. I may offend and even seem arrogant but as noted in the web site, taking people to task in this way and to this degree is new to me - and very personal in this case. I suppose the lampooning and sarcasm stem from bitter disappointment.

In the big picture, I would like to know why my government has failed me and apparently failing all of us. I could say more but the web site I created speaks for itself.

Sincerely,

R. Scott MacDonald (AKA: Rob)

<phone number redacted>

Here's that link; hang on to your hat:

<https://www.archuletacountycourts.com/>

From: <Sender Address Redacted>

Sent: Monday, January 6, 2025 12:47 PM

To: Boyd, Shaun <SBoyd@cbs.com>

Subject: Re: Judiciary story

Hi Ms. Boyd,

I hope that you had an enjoyable break and time away.

Now with regard to the reason I contacted you initially; problems with government response and interest in judicial problems. The web site (<https://www.archuletacountycourts.com>) dedicated to this court system/neighbor/government fiasco is a process of continual improvement and updating; just when I think it says all, there seems more to tell and so inform.

So you know, print media inquiries went nowhere; no one seemed bothered by what has occurred. I'm still hoping that someone like you will realize the bigger picture; malfunctioning, insulated government. But maybe I'm naïve in my thinking; perhaps those in-the-know realize this is just how government is. Thus, do let me know if you see a story or not. If not, I will keep doing as I have and continue my solo and likely ineffectual approach to making changes to what does seem to me to be a protectionist system (read: perhaps an empire of neglect) here in Colorado.

Sincerely,

Robert MacDonald
Pagosa Springs, CO
<phone number redacted>

NOTE: Nothing. No response. So next I write one of my indignant consumer letters to a higher-up at CBS to be greeted by yet more silence.